Embrace art and culture with our fall programs

Our fall Thrive series invites you to embrace art and culture with Shakespeare performances, musical quartets, film series, and more. Discover enriching programs based on themes found in Emily St. John Mandel's award-winning novel, Station Eleven. Programs for all ages begin October 3.

Visit www.scd.org/thrive for details.

Participate in Spokane Is Reading

Spokane Is Reading welcomes author Emily St. John Mandel and her book, Station Eleven, for the 14th annual community reading event on Thursday, October 29. Ms. Mandel will make two appearances that day, the first at CenterPlace Event Center at 1pm and the second at The Bing Crosby Theatre at 7pm. Both events are free and open to the public.

Visit spokaneisreading.org for details.

Outreach Services are designed for those in the community who are unable to visit any of the District's 10 libraries. Outreach also acts as the local liaison for Washington Talking Book & Braille Library.
