Groundbreaking Reads

Plan now to look beneath the surface and dig into groundbreaking reads with this summer's adult reading program!

Our Mystery Maven Kandy Brandt will be digging up murder as she presents archaeologists, anthropologists, geologists, and forensic scientists who dig into the mysteries surrounding sudden and violent deaths. Kandy leads this book discussion at several libraries around the District.

Our groundbreaking theme features more than mystery...

- Travel through urban geology with Geologist David Williams who uses local buildings to discuss how geology connects to our communities.
- Folksinger and storyteller Hank Cramer shares the folksongs and a slightly different look at the voices of the Oregon Trail.
- Fire and ice are facts of life in the Inland Northwest, Spokane Emergency Management presents preparedness concepts tailored for our area.
- Spokane County Master Gardeners share their knowledge of birds & butterflies, landscape design, dahlias, our urban forest, and composting.
- Get your feet on the ground and dance at an outdoors concert with Jenks!

Times, dates, locations, and more information on these, and other programs, can be found at www.sclld.org.
