Library News & Information

Summer Programs 2016: Ready, Set, Read!

It's summer at the library! Discover interactive stories about races and amazing physical feats. Fuel your creativity by building amazing things, creating art, and engineering a tasty treat or an electrical wonder. Explore ways to relax and get energized.

The Library District is the place for immersive fun and playful learning this summer.

Visit www.sclld.org/summer-16/ for more information.

Spokane Is Reading 2016 Title Announced

Spokane Is Reading announces author Anthony Marra and his book, The Tsar of Love and Techno, for the 15th Annual community reading event.

Spokane Is Reading, sponsored and organized by Spokane County Library District, Spokane Public Library, and Auntie's Bookstore, will host two appearances with Mr. Marra on Thursday, October 27, 2016. Both events are free and open to the public.

Visit spokaneisreading.org for details.

Genealogy services at the Library

Spokane County Library District offers two online genealogy services. Ancestry.com is available as an in-library resource and includes historical census, immigration, and vital records. Heritage Quest Online is available for use from home and includes over 25,000 family and local history books, census records and federal records.

Explore your family's history. Visit www.sclld.org/digital-library/ and stop by your local library.

The KEY to our collection!

We are pleased to offer a variety of formats in our branches for reading and listening to books:

HB – hardback book

PB – paperback book

CD – audiobook on CD

MP3CD – audiobook on CD in MP3 format

The District also offers eBooks and digital audiobooks on our website. These items require a computer for downloading. If you want to listen to a digital audiobook or read an eBook away from a computer, a portable device is required (e.g. tablets, eReaders, and smartphones).

EB – eBook

DAB – digital audiobook

Outreach Services are designed for those in the community who are unable to visit any of the District's 10 libraries. Outreach also acts as the local liaison for Washington Talking Book & Braille Library.
