2014 Spokane Is Reading Title Announced

Spokane Is Reading welcomes author Karen Russell and her book, Swamplandia! for the 13th Annual community reading event.

Spokane Is Reading, sponsored and organized by Spokane County Library District, Spokane Public Library, and Auntie's Bookstore, hosts two appearances with Ms. Russell on Thursday, October 16, 2014. The first appearance is at the Spokane Valley Event Center at 1pm, and the second at The Bing Crosby Theatre at 7pm. Both events are free admission.

This year's Spokane is Reading selection, Swamplandia!, is set in the weird world of Southern Florida where, amongst the mosquitoes, there is a strange mingling of ghosts, gators, and three siblings whose lives are a bit adrift.

Summer Reading is for Kids and Adults

Literary Elements is the theme of this year's adult Summer Reading. Explore the mysteries of cybercrime and DNA. Learn the secrets of sauerkraut, and to go with it the science of brewing beer. Get a bird's eye view of the Lake Missoula Floods; study the physics of your golf swing or practice the basics of artful flower arrangements.

For the kids, Summer Reading is an explosion of everyday science! Tap into engineering instincts with Legos and other building materials. There will be magic, monsters, and Mobius. From spicy salsa to squishy circuits, the best way to sum it up is Fizz, Boom, READ!
