Library News & Information

2014

Happy New Year! We're excited about all the great programs and events happening at the library in 2014. Here's a few of the things we're working on for you...

Finessing Your Finances

A financial series begins in February including programs with area experts who will address topics from organizing your finances to estate and other financial planning situations. Details will be announced soon.

Free Tax Aid

AARP volunteers return to select libraries in 2014 offering free tax help from February through April. Give us a call or check our website to learn how to make your appointment.

Hope in Hard Times

From April through June, we will host Hope in Hard Times, an exhibit exploring the adversity and triumph of everyday Americans, comparing the struggles of the 1930s with those faced today. The exhibit was curated by the Washington State Historical Society and is sponsored by Humanities Washington. As libraries have always offered hope in hard times, we are adding many local programs to this collaboration.

Let There Be Legos

All ages are invited as our traveling Lego Build Day stops at each Spokane County Library during 2014. Drop in for an hour or all day and create to your heart's content with thousands of Legos for your building pleasure. Check our website to find out when the event comes to your library or attend them all!

Hoopla

We are excited to share a new online resource with you: it's called Hoopla, and it allows you to stream music, movies, and TV shows for free with your library card, either in the library or anywhere you have an Internet connection!

Getting Social on the Web

Have you seen our new website yet? We're hoping that you're enjoying the ease of use and enhanced features (including our brand new blogs). Speaking of the Internet, did you know that we're on Facebook and Pinterest, bringing you insider information and inspiration? We'd love to connect with you there.
