WELCOME

Introductions
OBJECTIVES

▪ Recognize and reduce the risk of elder financial exploitation
▪ Guard against identity theft
▪ Plan for unexpected loss of the ability to manage your finances
▪ Prepare financially for disasters
▪ Find other helpful resources on managing money and reporting financial exploitation
WHAT DO YOU KNOW?

What is elder financial exploitation and who is at risk?
WHAT IS ELDER FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION?

- Fraudulent or otherwise illegal, unauthorized, or improper act or process of an individual that uses the resources of an older person for personal benefit, profit or gain

- Actions that result in depriving an older person of rightful access to, or use of benefits, resources, belongings, or assets
WHO IS AT RISK?

Anyone can be the victim of financial exploitation.

Elder financial exploitation crosses all social, educational, and economic boundaries.
WHY ARE OLDER ADULTS AT RISK?

Some older adults may:

- Have regular income and accumulated assets
- Be trusting and polite
- Be lonely and socially isolated
- Be vulnerable due to grief from a loss
- Be reluctant to report exploitation by a family member, caregiver, or someone they depend on
- Be dependent on support from a family member or caregiver to remain independent

Some older adults may:

- Be receiving care from a person with financial or other issues
- Fear retaliation by the exploiter
- Be unfamiliar with managing financial matters
- Not have planned for the potential loss of decision-making capacity
- Be cognitively impaired with diminished ability to make financial decisions or detect a fraud or scam
- Be dependent on a family member or another person who may pressure them for money
EXAMPLES OF FINANCIAL EXPLOITATION

- Exploitation by an agent under a POA or person in another fiduciary relationship

- Theft of money or property by family members, caregivers, or in-home helpers

- Investment fraud and scams

EXPLOITATION BY A FIDUCIARY

Fiduciary
a person who is named to manage your money or property

Fiduciary Duties
1. Acts only in your interest
2. Manages your money and property carefully
3. Keeps your money and property separate from his/hers
4. Keeps good records
WHAT IS A POWER OF ATTORNEY?

POA

a legal document that allows someone else to handle your finances on your behalf

- Appoints a substitute decision-maker who can handle finances on your behalf
- Generally, avoids the need for a court-appointed guardian
- Is relatively inexpensive to create; advisable to use a lawyer
POWER OF ATTORNEY: RISKS

- Pressure to grant more authority than you wish

- Misuse of your funds

- Unauthorized actions
  (e.g., make gifts if you didn’t grant that power)
POWER OF ATTORNEY

- A durable POA remains effective even if the grantor loses the capacity to make financial decisions
- An attorney can help make an appropriate POA for your circumstances
POWER OF ATTORNEY: SAFEGUARDS

- Trust but verify
- Avoid appointing anyone who mismanages money or has personal issues.
- Tell trusted professionals about your POA, including your financial institution so they can look out for misuse
- If needed, change, cancel, or revoke the POA
- Avoid appointing hired caregivers/helpers
- Beware of new “best friends” who offer to handle your finances
TIP: PLAN AHEAD!

A durable power of attorney is a very important tool in planning for financial incapacity due to Alzheimer’s disease, other forms of dementia, or other health problems.
HELP YOUR FIDUCIARY HELP YOU

The CFPB’s plain language guides help fiduciaries:

▪ Walk them through their duties
▪ Tell them how to watch out for scams and financial exploitation, and what to do if their loved one is a victim
▪ Tell them where to go for help

consumerfinance.gov/msem
IF YOU ARE A VICTIM

Report financial exploitation immediately to Adult Protective Services or your local law enforcement agency.
ABUSE BY CAREGIVERS AND IN-HOME HELPERS

Elder financial exploitation is often perpetrated by family members and other caregivers.
CAREGIVER: SAFEGUARDS

▪ Secure private financial documents
▪ Require receipts for purchases made
▪ Monitor bank accounts and telephone bills
▪ Consider setting up:
  – Automatic bill pay systems
  – Transaction alerts

- Do not let hired caregivers open your mail, pay your bills, manage your finances
- Never promise money or assets after you die in exchange for care now
- Never lend employees money or property
- Never let caregivers use your credit or ATM card

- Have someone else read your financial statements, if you are having trouble reading
- Secure your valuables
- Check your free credit reports at annualcreditreport.com
WHAT IS A ROMANCE SCAM?

▪ A romance scam is when a new love interest says they love you, but they just want your money

▪ Scammers may:
  • Assume a false identity
  • Take time to build trust with you
  • Ask for money under false pretenses

▪ The scams can happen online or in person
WHAT SCAMMERS MAY DO

Romance Scammers may:

- Claim they need money for an emergency surgery or medical bill
- Ask for help in paying unexpected customs fees or past gambling debts
- Request money for travel expenses or documentation so that they can visit you
- Seek smaller loan amounts and later ask for larger amounts
- Ask for gift cards and wire transfers (because they are hard to trace and not retractable)
ONLINE ROMANCE SCAMS

Online romance scammers may:

- Contact you through social media, dating apps, websites, text messages, or email
- Use false personas that seem just real enough to be true.
  - May steal other people's photos
- Use information from social media profiles to fake similarities with you
- Use excuses not to meet in person
IN PERSON ROMANCE SCAMS

- Some romance scams happen in person.
- The scam can involve an older adult who is socially isolated or dependent on others for assistance.
- The scammer could be a person you met at your church, community center, or a social group.
ROMANCE SCAM WARNING SIGNS

A new friend or love interest may:

- Be overly complimentary and flirtatious
- Shower you with attention
- Want you to keep your relationship a secret
- Show unusual interest in your finances
- Try hard to get you to share information about your finances
GETTING HELP

If you are or were being scammed:

- Stop communicating with the scammer
- Talk to someone you trust
- Tell your financial institution if you sent money
- Report the scammer to:
  - Local law enforcement
  - Adult Protective Services
  - Federal Trade Commission
- Take action as soon as possible
INVESTMENT FRAUD

- Misleading senior certifications/designations
- Ponzi schemes
- Unscrupulous financial advisers
- Affinity fraud
- Internet fraud – the “Dot-Con”
- Inappropriate or fraudulent annuities
INVESTMENTS: SAFEGUARDS

- Check the background of a broker or brokerage firm, or an investment adviser at brokercheck.finra.org or 1-800-289-9999

- Check the background of a Registered Investment Adviser at adviserinfo.sec.gov

- The North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) provides information for contacting state regulators nasaa.org/about-us/contact-us/contact-your-regulator/

- Consult CFPB consumer guide Know Your Financial Adviser at consumerfinance.gov/blog/know-your-financial-adviser

- Don’t trust strangers, no matter how trustworthy they sound
- Take time to understand your investment choices
- Say “no” to pressure
- Be wary of salespeople who prey on fears or promise returns that seem “too good to be true”

- Ask for a written explanation of every investment opportunity and get a second opinion
- Be wary of financial advisers who tell you to leave everything in their care
- Stay in charge of your money or enlist a trusted and capable third party

- Make checks payable to a company or financial institution, never an individual
- Retain and maintain account statements and confirmations
- Document every conversation
- Don’t put all of your eggs in one basket
INVESTMENTS: IF PROBLEMS OCCUR

- Take immediate action if you detect a problem
- Don’t let embarrassment or fear stop you from reporting exploitation or fraud

TIMING IS CRITICAL.
INVESTMENTS: POINTERS

- Save enough to cover six months of living expenses before you invest
- Don’t make any investments unless you understand them fully
- Become better informed
- Be wary of marketing tactics like a free lunch seminar
- Understand the risk before investing
- Tell your financial adviser of your financial objectives and risk tolerance

SIGNS OF A CHARITY SCAM

Charity scammers:

- Refuse to provide information
- Won’t provide proof that a contribution is tax deductible
- Mimic name of another organization
- Thank you for a pledge that you don’t remember making
SIGNS OF A CHARITY SCAM (cont.)

Charity scammers:

- Pressure victims to donate immediately
- Ask victims to donate cash or wire money
- Request private account info/routing numbers
- Guarantee sweepstakes winning in exchange for a contribution
CHARITY SCAM: SAFEGUARD

- Ask for information (e.g., name, address)
- Research using the organization’s name
- Check if the charity is trustworthy (e.g., Wise Giving Alliance, Charity Watch)
- Ask the following from a paid fundraiser:
  - Name of the charity
  - The percentage of your donation that will go to the charity
- Contact the charity directly about the solicitation

- Keep a record of your donations
- Make an annual donation plan
- Learn if the organization is eligible for tax deductible contributions

Tax deductible:
Contributions to the organization are eligible for tax deduction.

Tax exempt:
The organization doesn’t have to pay taxes.

- Pay by check or credit card
- Never send cash donations or wire money
- Do not donate until you’ve researched the charity
- Be wary of charities that spring up suddenly in response to current events/disasters
COMPUTER/INTERNET SCAMS

Phishing: Authentic-looking emails, text messages, and Web pages to trick unsuspecting users into revealing their personal financial information

Email spoofing: Email address disguised to look like that of someone you may know
TELL-TALE LANGUAGE

▪ “We suspect an unauthorized transaction on your account. To ensure your account is not compromised, please click the link below and confirm your identify.”

▪ “During our regular verification of accounts, we couldn’t verify your information… click here to update and verify your information.”

▪ “Our records indicate your account was overcharged. Call us to receive your refund.”
COMPUTER/INTERNET: SAFEGUARDS

- Use trusted security software and update regularly
- Do not email financial information or account numbers
- Be cautious about opening attachments and downloading files, regardless of the source
- Use passwords that are hard to guess
- Shut down your PC when not using it
COMPUTER/INTERNET: SAFEGUARDS (cont.)

- Do not give control of your computer to a third party

- Do not rely on caller ID alone to authenticate a caller

- Be cautious of scammers posing as tech support online. Use tech support listed on a software package or on your receipt

- Visit onguardonline.gov for more information
RESPOND TO PHISHING ATTACK

- Do not open any message from an unfamiliar sender
- If you open a suspicious message, delete it
- Delete email and text messages that ask you to confirm or provide personal information
- If you are concerned about an account, call the telephone number on your statement

If you downloaded malware from a scam tech support:

- Update or download legitimate software and scan your computer
- Delete anything identified as a problem
- Change password

If you paid for bogus tech support services, dispute with your credit card provider.
IDENTITY THEFT

Thieves steal your personal financial information and use your identity to commit fraud and other crimes.

- Medical treatment
- Prescription drugs
- Surgery or other services
MEDICAL IDENTITY THEFT: RISKS

- It is costly to correct
- Medicare may deny coverage for a service or equipment
- It can affect your medical and insurance records – change your blood type or record a diagnosis for a disease you don’t have
- You could receive wrong, perhaps harmful, treatment
MEDICAL IDENTITY THEFT: WARNING SIGNS

- A bill for services you did not receive
- Contact from a collection agency for money you do not owe
- Notification from insurance company that you have reached your limit for medical benefits
- Denial of insurance for a medical condition you don’t have
MEDICAL IDENTITY THEFT: SAFEGUARDS

▪ Protect your Medicare and insurance cards

▪ Review Medicare Summary Notices, Explanations of Benefits statements, and medical bills

▪ Be careful about sharing personal information

▪ Beware of offers for free equipment, services or goods in exchange for your Medicare number

▪ Shred papers with your medical identity and destroy prescription labels before throwing in the trash
MEDICAL IDENTITY THEFT: RESPOND

Obtain your medical file

Write to your health plan or provider for correction

Report your concerns to your Senior Medicare Patrol (SMP)
