SPOKANE COUNTY LIBRARY DISTRICT

POLICY: SOCIAL MEDIA
APPROVAL DATE: November 20, 2012
REVISION DATE: September 18, 2018

RELATED POLICY:
Code of Conduct

Purpose:
Spokane County Library District endorses the use of carefully chosen social media tools as an important enhancement to the communication, collaboration, and information exchange among District staff, library customers, and the public. Social media use by libraries can provide streamlined, cost-effective marketing and outreach, foster a sense of community between the library and its customers, and present interesting, relevant content to various audiences, just as in other library curatorial efforts.

Definition:
Social media is defined as any web application, site, or account that facilitates the sharing of ideas, opinions, and information about library-related subjects and issues, including the District website.

POLICY:
Social media tools employed by the District are selected to enhance or provide a cost-effective means to deliver such library services and functions as:

- Community outreach, marketing, and publicity
- Education of the community in the use of library resources
- Readers’ advisory services
- Information and reference services
- Book discussion groups
- Reading readiness activities for pre-school children
- Reading incentive programs for youth of all ages
- Cultural and educational programming
- Advertisement of volunteer opportunities available at the District
- Additional library-related uses that may be explored or expanded upon as deemed reasonable by library administration
- A welcoming and inviting online space where library users will find useful and entertaining information
- A catalog search and library account access
- Support and interaction with community partners and events
- A platform for sharing interesting and relevant content

Terms of Use:
Spokane County Library District has no affiliation with any advertisements or other material posted by third-party sites or software. District social media sites are for individuals to discuss things related to libraries, our community, and other topics of relevance to the District’s customers.
By choosing to comment on District social media sites, including the District website, individuals agree to the following terms:

Comments are moderated by District staff, and the District reserves the right to not post or to remove comments that are unlawful or off-topic as determined in its sole discretion, including, but not limited to:

- Plagiarized material
- Off-topic comments
- Commercial material, spam, and solicitations
- Duplicate posts from the same individual
- Impersonation of another person or posting of someone’s private information
- Profanity and political statements
- Any efforts to intimidate, harass, personally attack, or defraud another
- Any disruptive or excessive postings
- Posting meant to further illegal activity
- Sexual content or links to sexual content
- Statements that ridicule, malign, disparage, or otherwise express bias against any race, religion, or any group or individual
- Content that reveals private, personal information without permission
- Posts that violate brand trademarks or copyrights
- Information that may compromise the safety or security of the public or library staff
- Images, executable programs, or any non-textual content
- Information or photos about member interactions without their permission
- Disclosure of confidential, legal, or private information held by the District, including that which pertains to staff or customers
- Any contests or promotions directed toward members or staff that are not approved by the Communication Department

Persons, whether public or staff, who repeatedly violate these terms may be barred from further postings.

All comments are public records, and as such, are subject to public records laws and records retention schedules.

The Executive Director will establish administrative procedures necessary to implement this policy. Any appeal of an administrative action under this policy will first be made in writing to the Executive Director and then to the Board of Trustees.

The District will make a good faith effort to implement this policy in a fair and consistent manner.
