Online courses from Udemy offer hundreds of learning paths

Spokane, WA | May 6, 2021 – Spokane County Library District announces its latest digital resource, Gale Presents: Udemy. This latest addition to any lifelong learner’s toolbox has a large collection of video classes viewable online and covering thousands of topics.

Udemy includes courses for business owners, professional development, cloud computing, graphic design, game design, office productivity, project management, personal development, and more. Here are just a few examples of course topics:

BUSINESS

- Lead Generation & Cold Emails
- Marketing Fundamentals
- Quickbooks Pro & Payroll
- Operations Management
- Business Strategy Development

PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

- Playing Guitar
- Garden Design
- Sourdough Bread Baking
- Photography
- Drawing & Painting

COMPUTING & SOFTWARE

- Cloud Computing
- Adobe Photoshop
- Blender for 3D animation
- Machine Learning
- Operating Systems & Servers

OFFICE PRODUCTIVITY

- Business Communication
- Email Ninja
- Microsoft Excel & Data Visualization
- Financial Modeling
- Document Management

You can start a Udemy course at any time and take as long as you need to finish it. If the content in a video is particularly challenging, you can pause and rewind as much as needed. You can also unenroll and try a different class at any time. All classes include study guides along with videos and vary in length. For example, Udemy’s sewing class has only 1.5 hours of videos, while the American Sign Language class includes 49 hours of content.
