Explore new things, hone your skills at library programs during January

Spokane, WA | December 15, 2022 – Spokane County Library District announces its lineup of online and in-person library programs happening in January. You're invited to explore new things and hone your skills at the library.

Express your creativity with a submission to the Community Art Show. Submissions will be accepted January 3–29, and the art show will be on display in libraries February 6–28, 2023. Find the details and learn about submissions at www.sclcd.org/art-show.

At the SCORE Spokane workshop Small Business Resiliency, you can learn how to prepare for potential business challenges including pandemics, natural disasters, extreme weather, industry regulation changes, supply chain disruptions, and more.

The SCLD Online Authors Series offers three great author talks in January with Namina Forna, author of The Gilded Ones Series, Dana K. White, author of Decluttering at the Speed of Life, and Randall Munroe, author of the What If? series.

Reading and discussing books as a family gives you time to connect and learn together. During Bookmark Bunch: Family Book Discussion, you and your family read the book From the Mixed-Up Files of Mrs. Basil E. Frankweiler, by E. L. Konigsburg, and meet weekly with other families to discuss it.

If you enjoy crafting and have unfinished projects, then you may want to sign up for the Pro-Craft-inators Accountability Club. This online program provides space for encouragement from other crafters and, if you're stuck, assistance from crafty librarians.

Other library programs taking place in January include weekly Storytimes, Introduction to Dominican Bachata, LEGO Free Play, Green Screen Cinema Magic, and 3D Printing Drop-in Hours.

For the full list of programs and how to sign up, visit www.sclcd.org/january-2023.
