Discover engaging library events, resources, services in the new Engage

Spokane, WA / October 19, 2023 – The latest issue of Engage is now available. This guide for Spokane County Library District shares library resources, services, and events happening now through January 2024.

This fall and winter, find engaging events for a variety of interests and for all ages that include delightful activities and opportunities for lifelong learning and personal enrichment. Within the pages of Engage, you'll also discover library resources and services that offer support and help for you and others in our community.

Stop by one of our libraries to pick up the latest issue of Engage today, or see it online at www.sclld.org/engage.

The November lineup of library workshops, events, and activities offers dozens of opportunities for adults, businesses, families, kids, and teens. Adults can stop by for a Genealogy Drop-in Session, learn about Growing Winter Bulbs, Speed Date a Few Books, get help during a Medicare workshop, and attend a presentation about Parenting for Caregivers Raising Children of Color. And that's just the start!

Small business owners and entrepreneurs can learn how to manage their workflows and improve productivity with Google Suite for Small Business.

Kids and teens can find engaging fun at over a dozen workshops! Hear The Story of Art, discover Grossology, create a LEGO Stop-Motion Animation movie, and make a difference on Teen Leadership Council. Parents and caregivers can bring their youngest library goers to our weekly Play & Learn Storytimes, each crafted for different ages with stories, songs, and activities for babies, toddlers, preschoolers, or the whole family.

Flip through the pages of Engage to find even more library events happening in November. To sign up for events that require registration, visit www.sclld.org/events.
